Young Dexter is a half brother to Dexter, George Wilkes, Brune, Brunette – allied to Mountain Boy – and other well known horses. It is manifestly for the benefit of stock growers that they obtain not only the best and most popular blood in the country, but also that which commands the highest prices it market, and it requires no more labor or care to raise a good colt than an inferior one. It was with the view to improve the stock of horses in Northern New York, Varyout and Now Hampshire, etc., that Young 1 xter was purchased by its present owner, Mr. Y. C. Page, Editor of the People's Journal—the jeet being to benefit farmers and stock growers.
